PRESS RELEASE

Date: 21st April 2026

The National Investment Board (NIB) and Vickie Remoe & Company (VR & C Marketing) partner to Host Sierra Leone Diaspora Investment Conference 2026

Freetown, Sierra Leone - The National Investment Board (NIB), on behalf of the Government of Sierra Leone, is pleased to announce a strategic partnership with Vickie Remoe & Company (VR&C Marketing) to host the Sierra Leone Diaspora Investment Conference (SLDIC) 2026, scheduled to take place on 19th and 20th June 2026 at the InterContinental Hotel, Park Lane, London.

The conference will serve as a high-level platform to connect diaspora investors, global partners, and domestic stakeholders around tangible investment opportunities and policy reforms.

The NIB will serve as the Government's lead agency for the conference, providing institutional leadership and ensuring alignment with national investment priorities. The conference will be structured across two days:

Day 1: Government Engagement and Policy Dialogue - The NIB will lead the Government Engagement, showcasing feature high-level plenary sessions with key Ministries and agencies, as well as strategic discussions on improving the investment climate.

Day 2: Investment Mobilization and Private Sector Engagement - focusing on structuring diaspora investment vehicles, mobilizing capital, and showcasing investment-ready businesses through a dedicated pitch platform.

The Executive Director of NIB, Dr. Sandy, noted: "Through SLDIC 2026, we are committed to presenting credible opportunities, strengthening facilitation mechanisms, and delivering a more coordinated, investor-friendly ecosystem."

The Sierra Leone Diaspora Investment Conference 2026 is expected to attract a wide range of participants, including diaspora entrepreneurs, institutional investors, development partners, and Government representatives, all united by a shared commitment to advancing Sierra Leone's economic transformation.
